INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors of
South Hills Interfaith Ministries
Bethel Park, Pennsylvania

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of South Hills Interfaith Ministries (a Pennsylvania Non-Profit Organization), doing business as "South Hills Interfaith Movement" ("SHIM"), which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2025 and 2024, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of SHIM as of June 30, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP").

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAS"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of SHIM and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about SHIM's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but it is not absolute assurance; therefore, it is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of SHIM's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about SHIM's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

SOUTH HILLS INTERFAITH MOVEMENT
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEARS ENDED JUNE 30, 2025 AND 2024

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

Nature of Activities – South Hills Interfaith Ministries, doing business as “South Hills Interfaith Movement” (“SHIM”), was established in 1968 and is a non-profit health and human service agency serving the South Hills of Allegheny County, Pennsylvania. SHIM envisions an inclusive community where everyone has the opportunity to thrive. SHIM’s mission is to mobilize community resources and implement sustainable programs that compassionately help their neighbors meet basic needs, achieve self-sufficiency, and build community. SHIM impacts over 8,500 individuals and families through: basic needs programming (Food Pantries, Utility Assistance, Service Coordination, and Case Management services); self-sufficiency programming (Family Support Center, Early Childhood Program, After-school Program, Mentoring Program, Emergency Grant Funding, and CheckMates – senior phone reassurance program); and community-building programs (Community Gardens, Interfaith Programs, and Volunteerism). SHIM receives broad-based financial support from the religious community, community organizations and schools, foundations, corporations, government, and individuals.

NOTE 2 – SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting – The financial statements for SHIM have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with United States Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (US GAAP).

Basis of Presentation – Under US GAAP, SHIM is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets, as follows:

Net Assets without Donor Restrictions are available for use in general operations and not subject to donor- (or certain grantor-) imposed restrictions.

Net Assets with Donor Restrictions are from contributions, grants, and other inflows of assets whose use by SHIM is limited by donor- or grantor-imposed stipulations that either expire by passage of time, or can be fulfilled and removed by actions of SHIM, pursuant to the stipulations.

Cash and Cash Equivalents – SHIM considers all unrestricted, highly-liquid instruments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. SHIM maintains cash and cash equivalents at banks which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”). From time to time, SHIM has a credit risk for cash when the cash balance at a single bank exceeds the federally-insured amount of $250,000.

Accounts Receivable – Accounts receivable is stated at amounts that management expects to collect from outstanding balances at fiscal year-end. Management provides for probable uncollectable amounts through an allowance for credit losses and credit loss expense based on its assessment of the current status of individual accounts after reasonable collection efforts have been made. Management believes no allowance for credit losses is necessary. Credit loss expense was $0 for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2025 and 2024.

Promises to Give – SHIM records unconditional promises to give that are expected to be collected within one year at net realizable value. Unconditional promises to give expected to be collected in future years are initially recorded at fair value, using present value techniques that incorporate risk-adjusted discount rates designed to reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset. Significant promises to give to be received beyond one year are considered non-current and are discounted using SHIM's borrowing rate of Prime. During the year ended June 30, 2025, all outstanding pledge receivables were received and collected. See Note 6.

Amortization of the discounts is included in contribution revenue in the statements of activities. SHIM determined the allowance for uncollectable promises to give based on an assessment of economic conditions, historical experience, and a review of subsequent collections. Promises to give are reserved for when deemed uncollectable. As of June 30, 2025 and 2024, the allowance was $0.

Prepaid Expenses – Prepaid expenses consist of computer services.

Inventories – Inventories consist of various food products, articles of clothing, and gift cards, which are carried at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Donated food inventory items are valued at approximately $1.97 and $1.93 per pound as of June 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively, based upon the national per-pound average of donated product outlined in the Product Valuation Survey Methodology (prepared by Feeding America, a national food bank network non-profit corporation) for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2025 and 2024. KPMG, LLP performed procedures to assist Feeding America with determining the average wholesale value of one pound of donated product. Clothing was valued at $10.05 and $9.77 per unit for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively, based upon averages derived from the Salvation Army Donation Value Guide, which is available upon request.

Property and Equipment – Property and equipment is carried at cost or, if donated, at the approximate fair value at the date of donation. SHIM capitalizes building, land, and land improvements greater than $1,000. SHIM capitalizes vehicles, equipment, and computer software greater than $1,500. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives, ranging from 3 – 40 years. Upon retirement, sale, or other disposition of property and equipment, the cost and accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the accounts, and any gain or loss is included in operations. Maintenance and repairs of property and equipment are expensed, and major improvements are capitalized.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments – Operating investments, accounts receivable, promises to give, net, prepaid expenses, and accounts payable and other current liabilities have been identified as short-term financial instruments. The related carrying amounts in the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2025 and 2024 approximate fair values because of the relatively short time between the origination of the instrument and its expected realization / liquidation.

Contributions – SHIM reports gifts of cash and other assets as support with donor restrictions if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. Contributions that are restricted by the donor are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restrictions expire in the fiscal year in which the contributions are recognized.

Revenue Recognition – Revenues and support result primarily from donations from the general public, bequests, private and government grants, and fundraising events. SHIM has a contract with Allegheny County, in which funds are received and revenue is recognized on a cost-reimbursement basis. SHIM recognizes revenues when cash and securities are received, or an unconditional grant or promises to give is awarded or promised. Conditional grants and promises to give (that is, those with a measurable performance or other barrier and right of return) are not recognized until the conditions upon which they depend have been met.

In-Kind Donations – SHIM's policy related to gifts-in-kind is to utilize the assets given to carry out the mission of SHIM. Contributed goods are recorded at fair value at the date of donation. If an asset is provided that does not allow SHIM to utilize it in its normal course of business, the asset will be sold at its fair market value as determined by appraisal or specialist depending on the type of asset. In-kind donations are recorded as contributions of non-financial assets at their estimated fair values at the date of donation. Donated services are recognized as contributions of non-financial assets if the services (a) create or enhance non-financial assets, or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would have otherwise been purchased by SHIM.

- Items donated totaled $30,000 and $14,775 for the Back-to-School Program for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively.
- Donations of food, clothing, and household items totaled $478,790 and $460,302 for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Volunteer Service – The public donates services to assist in carrying out SHIM's mission. During the fiscal years ended June 30, 2025 and 2024, volunteers provided more than 17,890 and 14,150 hours, respectively. For services that did not require special expertise, management used an average non-exempt hourly rate of $15.00 to estimate the value of these unpaid services to be $268,356 and $212,253 for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2025, and 2024, respectively. The estimated value of these services has not been recorded in the financial statements because they did not satisfy the criteria for recognition under generally accepted accounting principles.

Functional Expense Allocation – The costs of providing the programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statements of activities, and by natural classification on the statements of functional expenses. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited. Salaries and related expenses, occupancy, and other expenses listed on the statements of functional expenses are allocated on a reasonable basis, based on time and effort, that is consistently applied. Occupancy expenses are allocated on a square footage basis.

Salaries and related expenses are directly charged to the various programs, administration, or fundraising, based on actual timecards. Employee benefits are primarily charged based on home department. Depreciation is allocated based on the use of the asset, identified by department.

Income Tax Status – SHIM is exempt from income taxes under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3).

SHIM records a liability for uncertain tax positions, if any, based on management's judgment of the risk of loss for items that have been, or may be, challenged by taxing authorities. SHIM continually evaluates expiring statutes of limitations, audits, proposed settlements, changes in tax law, and new authoritative rulings.

Use of Estimates – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Leases – SHIM has operating leases of building space and office equipment. SHIM assesses whether an arrangement qualifies as a lease (i.e., conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration) at inception and only reassesses its determination if the terms and conditions of the arrangement are changed. Leases with an initial term of 12 months or less are not recorded on the statements of financial position. Lease expense is recognized for these leases on a straight-line basis over the lease term. As the leases do not provide an implicit rate, SHIM used the practical expedient to use the risk-free discount rate, based on the information available at the commencement date in determining the present value of lease payments. The exercise of lease renewal options is at SHIM's sole discretion. The depreciable life of assets and leasehold improvements are limited by the expected lease term unless there is a transfer of title or purchase option reasonably certain of exercise. See Note 11.

Reclassifications – Certain amounts in the prior year financial statements have been reclassified for comparative purposes to conform to the presentation in the current year financial statements. Such reclassifications had no impact on net assets.

NOTE 3 – LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY OF FINANCIAL ASSETS

As of June 30, 2025 and 2024, SHIM had $3,085,880 and $3,476,923 of financial assets available to meet the cash needs for general operating expenditures within one year, respectively. As part of SHIM's liquidity management plan, cash in excess of daily requirements is retained within its investment accounts.

As part of SHIM's liquidity management, it has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due.

NOTE 4 – INVESTMENTS

Market price observability is impacted by several factors, including the type of investment, the characteristics specific to the investment, and the state of the marketplace (including the existence and transparency of transactions between market participants).

Investments with readily-available, actively-quoted prices, or for which fair value can be measured from actively quoted prices in an orderly market, will generally have a higher degree of market price observability and a lesser degree of judgment used in measuring fair value.

Investments measured and reported at fair value are classified and disclosed in one of the following categories based on inputs:

Level I – Quoted prices are available in active markets for identical investments as of the reporting date. The type of investments which would generally be included in Level I include listed equity securities and listed derivatives. To the extent that it holds such investments, SHIM does not adjust the quoted price for these investments, even in situations where SHIM holds a large position and a sale could reasonably impact the quoted price.

Level II – Pricing inputs are observable for the investments, either directly or indirectly, as of the reporting date, but are not the same as those used in Level I. Fair value is determined through the use of models or other valuation methodologies. The types of investments which would generally be included in this category include publicly-traded securities with restrictions on disposition, debt securities and partnerships that hold Level I assets, and real estate held for investment, if measured by a current appraisal.

Level III – Pricing inputs are unobservable for the investment and include situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the investment. The inputs into the determination of fair value require significant judgment or estimation by management. The types of investments which would generally be included in this category include debt and equity securities issued by private entities and real estate held for investment, if measured using management estimates.

In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, the determination of which category within the fair value hierarchy is appropriate for any given investment is based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. SHIM's assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment and considers factors specific to the investment.

The following table sets forth, by level within the fair value hierarchy, SHIM's assets at fair value. All assets are Level I.

NOTE 11 – LEASE COMMITMENTS

SHIM leases building space and office equipment under various operating lease arrangements through September 2030. Total lease expense was $166,503 and $103,832, which includes short term leases of $58,765 and $89,146, for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

In October 2017, SHIM signed a three-year lease agreement to rent out a portion of the Baldwin-Wallace Building from the Baldwin-Whitehall School District to better accommodate its Family Center services within the South Hills community. The lease contained two one-year extensions, but is currently operating as a month-to-month lease, as neither option was exercised.

SHIM has verbal month-to-month operating leases in place with the Baldwin Presbyterian Church and the Whitehall Presbyterian Church. In September 2022, SHIM signed a 10-month operating lease with Hamilton Presbyterian Church. Accordingly, these leases do not meet the requirements under Topic 842 to record right-of-use assets and related lease liabilities.

The following summarizes the line items in the statements of financial position, which includes amounts for operating leases as of June 30:

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

To the Board of Directors of
South Hills Interfaith Ministries
Bethel Park, Pennsylvania

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the basic financial statements of South Hills Interfaith Ministries (a Pennsylvania Non-Profit Organization), doing business as "South Hills Interfaith Movement" ("SHIM"), as of and for the fiscal years then ended June 30, 2025 and 2024, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise SHIM's basic financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated November 11, 2025.

Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered SHIM's internal control over financial reporting ("internal control") as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinions on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of SHIM's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of SHIM's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of SHIM's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audits, we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified.

Report on Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether SHIM's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of their compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, non-compliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the financial statements. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of non-compliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of This Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of SHIM's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering SHIM's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.
